

Position: Teaching Artist

Reports to: Director of Programming

Writer's Block Ink is accepting applications for teaching artists to fill programming as needed. If interested, please submit your resume and cover letter to kbaird.writersblock@gmail.com

Writer's Block Ink's Mission:

To arm young voices with the power of pen and prose, reinforcing teamwork, accountability, and responsibility; igniting social change on the page and stage.

Opportunities are available to teach:

- Children and teens
- Community Arts -in-Education
- Adult classes
- Full theater production

We are looking for dedicated teachers specializing in various genres. Ideal skills include, but are not limited to, dance and movement, creative writing, vocal or instrumental music.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- At least 2 years of arts teaching experience within a diverse age group and educational settings
- Experience working with a live musician/accompanist and recorded music
- A desire to inspire young people
- Strong communication skills

BENEFITS

- Work with youth on issues of social justice
- Interface with key community partners
- Professional development opportunities
- Full onboarding and training opportunities

COMPENSATION:

- Commensurate with experience
-

Please provide with your application:

- Cover letter, resume and sample lesson plan/class description