What's Hip in History and Heritage?

Regan Miner, Consultant for the Norwich Historical Society
What’s Hip in History & Heritage?

Elizabeth Wood, Executive Director
The Stonington Historical Society
WHAT DO WE DO?

Formed in 2001, the Norwich Historical Society seeks to preserve, protect and promote the rich history of Norwich, CT.

We are a registered 501(c)(3), non-profit organization run entirely by volunteers and a part time Consultant.
Museums & Library
Preservation Properties
Programs

History Day on the Norwichtown Green

Antient Ghosts of Norwich Tour
The Norwich Heritage & Regional Visitors’ Center
Positive Change
Norwichtown Village District Overlay Zone
Opportunities
Neighborhood Assistance Act
The Norwich Heritage Groups
Trends
History & Hops
Walk Norwich Trails
The Uncas Leap Trail &
The Benedict Arnold Trail
Phase 2: Walk Norwich
Programs & Outreach

- Monthly Public Lectures
- Free First Fridays
- Location, location, location
  - La Grua Center
  - The Stonington VFW
  - Pawcatuck Neighborhood Center
  - Cottrell Brewing Company
  - Farmers Market
- Stonington High School History
- Service Learning Projects
- Pawcatuck Middle School
- Partnerships & Collaborations
  - New audiences
  - Enhanced offerings
  - Stonington Community Center
  - NESS
  - La Grua
National Park Service Battlefield Protection Grant
Irish Presence Project
Rollie McKenna Project
Venture Smith
Thank you!

Questions?

Regan Miner: minerregan@gmail.com
Elizabeth Wood: director@stoningtonhistory.org

Websites: www.norwichhistoricalsociety.org and www.walknorwich.org www.stoningtonhistory.org