

---

Support Local News.

We've been with you throughout the pandemic, the vaccinations and the reopening of schools, businesses and communities. There's never been more of a need for the kind of local, independent and unbiased journalism that The Day produces.

Please support our work by subscribing today.

SUBSCRIBE (<https://home.theday.com/portal/TD21D&CSReferrer=localnews>)

---

Cultural Coalition announces new regional coordinator

Charlene Haukom. (Photo submitted)

The Cultural Coalition has announced Charlene Haukom as the organization's Northeast Region Coordinator.

In this new position, she will serve as the liaison to the region, assess the arts and cultural landscape, and extend the Cultural Coalition's programs and services to the creative community.

A freelance writer and artist, Ms. Haukom has experience building connections with the arts and culture community.

Cultural Coalition's Executive Director Wendy Bury said, "We look forward to having Charlene as part of our growing team. The northeast region has a vibrant and diverse arts community, which includes local arts events, festivals, institutions, and activities, as well as a diffuse network of artists."

The Cultural Coalition has been the Designated Regional Service Organization for southeastern Connecticut since its inception in 2014.

STORIES THAT MAY INTEREST YOU

New London police will install a citywide surveillance camera system (/local-news/20220103/new-london-police-will-install-citywide-surveillance-camera-system)

The city police department plans to install more than three dozen cameras throughout the city, creating a surveillance system covering roads and parks.

Norwich Mayor Nystrom urges residents, businesses to persevere during pandemic (/local-news/20220103/norwich-mayor-nystrom-urges-residents-businesses-to-persevere-during-pandemic)

Norwich Mayor Peter Nystrom gave his State of the City address Monday in a mostly empty Council Chambers, as the COVID-19 surge shifted the meeting online.

